In my hometown, it usually snows a lot from December to February. Kids enjoy playing in the snow during the period of time. They will make snowmen, go skiing, and have snowball fights. Some kids also like to take sled rides. They stand on the sleds and slide down the hill. For them, it's like flying in the air. I also liked to go sled riding when I was little. But now, I seldom do that because I have to take care of my kids. When my kids grow up, I will take them out to play in the snow and take a sled ride together. It will be a lot of fun.
