On his way, he saw a lot of people in front of a new supermarket. They were standing in line and waiting to get into the supermarket. Johnny wanted to buy some candy, so he went into the supermarket with them. When he went out of the supermarket, it was late at night, and he couldn't find his way home. He was scared and wanted to go to the police station, but he didn't know the way to get there. He didn't want to ask strangers for help, so he took something from a shop without paying.
