真好吃

夜鷺是機會主義者，以魚、蝦、青蛙
和昆蟲為主食

A night heron is shown in the middle of catching a fish in a body of water. The bird is standing on its long legs, with its wings spread wide and its long neck extended to catch the fish. The water is splashing around the bird's feet. The background is a calm, rippling surface of water.

抓到了!
